WORK EXPERIENCE

Research Assistant II – Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution

July 2015 – July 2017

Responsibilities included assisting technical staff members and others in the analysis and visualization of ocean biogeochemical field data, remote sensing imagery, and numerical models, as well as occasional field work and sample processing. Projects included modeling of spatial and temporal distributions of tritium in the ocean and atmosphere, and using satellite data to constrain atmospheric transport influences on carbon fluxes. In the Computational Biogeochemistry group at Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution (P.I. Scott Doney).

MENTORING AND TEACHING

Teaching Certifications (through the MIT Teaching and Learning Lab)

- Subject Design (June 2020)
- Teaching Practice (July 2020)

Massachusetts Institute of Technology

- Co-led 12.s597: Seminar on Teaching in Earth Science. Designed syllabus and led classroom discussions and activities on effective, research-based teaching practice (co-led with D. McGee).
- EAPS Teaching Development Fellow: responsible for organizing workshops and communities in the department to develop thoughtful teaching practices among graduate students and faculty (2021-2022).
- Teaching assistant for 12.000: Solving Complex Problems (Fall 2019 - present).
- Mentored undergrad researcher Anna Meurer, working on metrics for measuring the success of computer vision algorithms on tufa textures (Summer 2020).
- Mentored undergrad researcher Pratistha Timilsina, cataloging and measuring preserved spits in Bonneville Basin (Spring and Summer 2021).

Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution

- Managed undergraduate summer students on occasional field trips.
- Advised Falmouth Academy student Charlie Fenske in producing climatologies and time series of nutrient and physical data collected at the Waquoit Bay National Estuarine Reserve since the early 2000's, introducing him to Python programming and data visualization concepts (2016).

Wellesley College

- Tutor for CS 111: Computer Programming and Problem Solving, including grading problem sets, assisting in lab, and holding drop-in hours for student questions.

HONORS AND AWARDS

MIT School of Science Spot Award, given for "...exceptional contributions of individuals and teams, large or small, to the School of Science community", in recognition as work as EAPS Mentoring Co-czar (nominated by peers).

MIT/WHOI Joint Program Ocean Ventures Fund Award for field work in Bonneville Basin, Utah (October 2021).

MIT/WHOI Joint Program Ocean Ventures Fund Award for field work in Searles Valley (October 2018).

WHOI Department of Marine Chemistry and Geochemistry Whelan Grant for attendance of the 2016 Ocean Sciences Conference.

Sigma Xi, nominated for associate membership in May 2015.

Margaret D. Thompson Award for scholarship in the geosciences (2015).

Daniels Fellowship, awarded to four Wellesley seniors for "a work of imagination as well as intellect, a worthy and vivid dream project that explores who she is as well as what she knows" towards geosciences independent study of mapping and geochronology of Salem Neck, MA, 2014 – 2015.

Sarah F. Langer Memorial Award, given by Wellesley Geosciences Department for "eager curiosity in the field of geology, a dedication to excellence inside and outside the classroom, and a generosity of spirit in her day-to-day contributions to the College", 2014.

Annie Jump Cannon Research Fellowship from the Wellesley College Astronomy Department, 2013 (first awarded).
